

Alaska Ski for Women Grant Information

Thank you for your interest in the Alaska Ski for Women (ASFW) Grant Program. This fundraising opportunity fulfills the secondary objective of our event, which is to raise money for local nonprofit organizations that help stop the cycle of domestic abuse against women and children. Not only does the ASFW Committee want to support organizations providing a safe place for women and children to go in time of crisis, but we also want to support programs helping women after crisis to regain their self-esteem, their independence and a healthy lifestyle. The ASFW Committee sincerely wishes each applicant continued success with your endeavors supporting the women and children in our community throughout the year.
