

The nation's best young ski jumpers are coming to Anchorage to compete in the 2018 Ski Jumping and Nordic Combined Junior Nationals!

The Nordic Skiing Association of Anchorage (NSAA) has been selected to host the 2018 Junior Nationals Ski Jumping and Nordic Combined (ski jumping and cross-country skiing), February 20-24, 2018.

The Junior Nationals is a prestigious event affiliated with the United States Ski and Snowboard Association (USSA). This national event brings together the best junior athletes in the country. Approximately 50 of the country's top ski jumpers and Nordic skiers will be bringing years of dedication and training to the top of the ski jump towers and cross-country start lines as they strive to fulfill their dreams. Hundreds of spectators from throughout the country and state will line the Karl Eid Ski Jumping Complex and the trails at Kincaid Park. Local and national media will bring attention to our sponsors.

Become part of an event that demonstrates the best of human character, the goal to excel, and the spirit of competition. The Junior Nationals will showcase our nation's young athletes, our facilities at Hillside and Kincaid Park, and Anchorage as a magnificent winter visitor destination. Local volunteers, two years of planning, and strong support from generous financial partners like you will assure that the 2018 Junior Nationals will be the best ever.
